As Spiritual Directors, we need to attend to the movements of the spirit within ourselves as we accompany others, so that we may better listen in the practice of spiritual direction. Group Supervision provides a safe and confidential space for exploring the inner dynamics of the spiritual director. An experienced supervisor will guide the process.

Group Supervision is designed for beginning and experienced spiritual directors. Each session will allow for a presentation by two spiritual directors to the group. Each session will also allow time for consultation.

Kathy Donnelly, SU is on the Linwood Retreat Staff and does training for new spiritual directors and supervisors. She has studied Ignatian Spirituality in many venues. She is also trained in Bio-Spiritual Focusing, connecting the wisdom of the body with the wisdom of the spirit.
